

The NJ "Do not call" protects consumers from uninvited solicitations and should not be altered or invalidated. People who do want to be disturbed at home should be allowed to prevent all unwanted telephone solicitations. The wishes and rights of the citizens of NJ should be respected in this matter.